Educational Guidance Services

for Immigrants

District of Pfaffenhofen a.d.Ilm

landkreis-pfaffenhofen.de

■ What are we all about?

Language, education and work are key steps when it comes to integration. The more proficient you are in the German language, the easier it becomes to find an adequate job. Of course you will need the appropriate degree as well. The Department for Integration will offer counselling with regard to German classes, other educational training as well as support in getting your foreign certificates acknowledged. We also provide assistance in tailoring your very individual educational plan towards your desired profession.

You are an entrepreneur and your business is based within the district of Pfaffenhofen? We answer your questions regarding the employment and training of your employees with migration background.

■ Who is our clientele?

Our service focuses on (newly arrived) immigrants regardless of your nationality, type of residence title or reason for immigration.

■ What can we help you with?

We are there for you if you seek help at planning your very individual educational and professional career.

■ Language

- The whole variety of German language courses such as integration courses, alphabetic training classes or vocational language courses, to name a few
- The requirements for exams and participation

■ School education

- School related information for example on the school system in Bavaria and Germany as a whole, coaching, acknowledgement of foreign school qualifications or adult education

■ Vocational training and advanced training

- Professional education and advanced training such as career preparation, vocational training concerning both classroom based vocational training and apprenticeships according to the German dual education model
- Acknowledgement of foreign job qualifications with personal support and guidance to other supporting institutions
- Academic education such as available models of higher education

■ Work

- For enterprises: Guidance to specialist departments and funding possibilities for employers and instructors. Specialist departments or funding possibilities. In-house Language training and help with administrative affairs

Our guidance is free of charges, discrete and extensive.

Guidance will be tailored to your individual circumstances.
